

Never Give Up

Persisting in prayer, knowing that we have a compassionate, caring, and just Father who faithfully and relentlessly responds to us.

July 24th: Luke 18:1-8.

Josh Matthews

Action Step of Faith:

What will you do differently, or start doing, this week as result of today's discussion?

Discussion Questions:

Read Luke 18:1-8

1. Who are the characters and what is the plot in verses 2-5?
2. What is the point of the story (see verse 1)?
3. In the story, what are the relationships between the characters?
4. What motivates the powerful character to do as the powerless character wishes?
5. What motivates God to hear our prayers?
6. Why is there a question about finding "faith on earth" in verse 8?
7. What are concerns in your life where prayers are seemingly unanswered?
8. How have you responded to the seeming lack of response?
9. What might God be teaching us from apparently unanswered prayer?

Sermon Notes: